To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing the Federal Election Commission about a potential violation of campaign finance law. The respondents are Phillip Capitano, the Kenner Professional Women's Association, and the Friends of Bobby Jindal campaign committee.

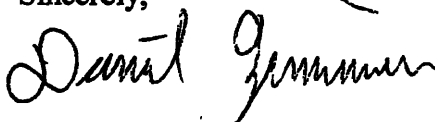

On August 17, 2004; the Kenner Professional Women's association held a luncheon where Bobby Jindal was the guest speaker. This event was advertised in the Time's Picayune calendar section. In the advertisement, Bobby Jindal was referred to as a congressional candidate (see first attachment). According to your specialist that I spoke with, advertising an event where the speaker is announced as a candidate for federal office makes the luncheon a campaign event.

On August 10, 2004; Phillip Capitano, Mayor of the City of Kenner, wrote a check to the Kenner Professional Women's Association (see second attachment) in the amount of $225.00 that would be covering the cost of a table at the luncheon where congressional candidate Jindal was a guest speaker. The third attachment links the check that was written to the event. This payment was made using Kenner funds. Since the City of Kenner is incorporated, these funds could not be used to help put on a campaign event under campaign finance law.

On May 19, 2005; Mayor Capitano was asked to explain these funds at the Kenner City Council meeting. At first he stated that the funds where used to lobby Congressman Jindal for projects in Kenner. Once it was determined that the event took place before the election, Mayor Capitano explained that he viewed this event as a good way to see if Mr. Jindal would be a good representative in congress. This confirmed in my eyes that the Mayor saw this event as more than just a discussion of health care, but a campaign event where Bobby Jindal could showcase his platform, in which health care was a priority.

In my opinion, this $225 was an illegal "in kind" donation to the Friends of Bobby Jindal campaign by Mayor Capitano and the KPWA. If you need any more information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Daniel Zimmerman
